

Computer Woes and a Giveaway Winner...

Sorry about the delay in picking a winner for the Lapel Stick giveaway...I have intended on picking a winner sooner but I have been having computer woes. For some reason, unknown to me, the monitor will just randomly shut off. I've been working and testing theories, but so far no luck. I am not quite ready to give up, but close.

Anyway on to the giveaway from Lapel Stick. Many of you had great ideas on how to use these great fabric glue sticks...some I hadn't tried but definitely plan too. I want to try it for holding a zipper in place instead of pins. Someone mentioned in a comment that they weren't sure where to purchase them. They are available through their website.

Lapel Stick is sending a glue stick to two of my readers and they are...

Skye who said, "Oh, I'd love to try it for wool applique. Thanks for the chance.

and

Paulette Doyle who said, I too would LOVE to try Lapel Stick...I do a ton of wool work and would like to see how well they work!! Thanks for the chance!
Congrats girls! Watch for more fun giveaways coming soon.
